

Ambassador Duties

1. To support the Mission, Vision and Goals of the General Grand Chapter.
2. Help provide training and education within your jurisdiction.
3. Notify the GGHP and/or dais officers if a potential problem arises within your jurisdiction.
4. Discuss and support Royal Arch Research Assistance. Advise the Grand High Priest within your jurisdiction of up-coming events.
5. Advocate the Royal Arch Magazine and the Electronic Version thereof. Encourage individuals to write articles for publication in these publications. Attempt to share unique events with all jurisdictions, especially those close.
6. Encourage young Masons to provide inputs on what they desire Masonry to be in the future. Pass that information on to both the deputy and the dais officers of the General Grand Chapter for action.
7. Take time to recommend the younger potential leaders for participation in the Emerging Leaders Program. It will benefit both them and your Grand Chapter.
8. Make recommendations to the Regional Deputy for any programs that you would like covered at the Regional Conferences. Training and education is our primary emphasis. Attempt to maximize participation from your jurisdiction.
9. Provide your Masonic biography to the E-Newsletter editor within one month after assuming office.
10. Contact and assist the officer representing the General Grand Chapter prior to your Grand Convocation.
11. Where the General Grand Chapter dais officer or regional deputy cannot attend your Grand Convocation, submit a report to the GGHP within one week after the Convocation (see attached form).
12. If you have questions or recommendations please contact us and do not consider it as inconsequential.
13. You are a KEY link to OUR Team! Without your help and active participation we cannot advance Royal Arch Masonry either in your Jurisdiction or the General Grand Chapter. We welcome you to the TEAM!
